SUMMER BOOK READING GROUP

'PHOEBE - a story' by Paula Gooder

Sometime around 56 AD the apostle Paul wrote to the church in Rome. He entrusted the letter to Phoebe, a deacon of the church and according to Paul, 'a patron of many'. But who was this remarkable woman?

Join us as we study this book together this summer.
Please sign the yellow sheet at the back of church. One group will meet on Mondays at 3 pm in the vicarage garden (or study) starting on 12 June; I will also arrange for some evening gatherings and contact all those interested shortly to confirm dates and times.

Paula Gooder is a well respected New Testament scholar.
